Class Song with Orchestral Accompaniment.

Words by Miss STACIA CROWLEY

Music by Prof THEO DECKER.

I.

Comrades, long these halls have echoed
To our sorrow and our glee.
Here we've struggled on together,
Dreaming of the great to be.
Often here we've joined in singing,
As the years have swept along.
Now, ere comes the hour of parting,
Let us sing another song.

CHORUS.

Once again let's swell the chorus,
And our sighs with singing mix;
For the world that lies before us,
Calls the class of Seventy-six.

II.

Long the years have seemed in passing,
Short they seem, now they are past,
Through the sunshine and the shadows,
We have reached the end at last.
Standing here, the battle over,
Looking on the field we've won,
Let us join once more in chorus,
And our anthem be, "well done."

CHORUS.

III.

Close the books, the lessons over;
Now our school-room is the world.
Here we give the new life greeting,
With our banners all unfurled.
Truth and Freedom for our watchword,
We will stand before each foe,
Firm, unflinching, as our Fathers
Stood, a hundred years ago.

CHORUS.

Then let's swell one last, loud chorus, &c.

The Knabe Piano, used on this occasion, gratuitously
